by deleting the amendatory language of Section 1 in its entirety and by substituting instead the following language:

No suit shall be commenced in any court of the state to invalidate any tax title to land after three (3) years from the time the land was sold for taxes, except in the case of persons under disability, who shall have one (1) year in which to bring suit after such disability is removed. This section shall not prevent the purchaser of land that was sold for taxes from filing a suit to validate the tax sale and quiet title at any time after one (1) year from the time the land was sold for taxes.
